

YOUR WEDDING DAY is so much more than a day. It is the beginning of the story of the rest of your life. The latest chapter in your personal journey of life and love, it is a day you will never forget. Every good story deserves to be told, and it is my mission to retell your story in compelling images you can enjoy for the rest of your life. With a true documentary approach, I believe in a non-intrusive method of reportage.

Candid, personal exchanges are the best way to tell your story. From setting up and preparing for the day to the last dance that night, I want to capture those moments. Before I can tell your story, I want to learn yours. So let's meet and discuss what is important to you. A trusted relationship between you and the photographer is key to magnificent photos. But this is no home movie or family album. Documenting your day is only half the task. Turning thousands of photos into a concise, modern and meaningful edit is the true show of a photojournalist's ability.

Your story deserves no less.

ABOUT ME

I am a San Francisco native and a graduate of the University of Illinois. Most recently, I was honored to receive an Award of Excellence in the 68th annual Pictures of the Year International photo contest for editorial work. Currently based in San Francisco, I also do freelance editorial work for the Associated Press, European Press Agency, Reuters News Pictures and The San Francisco Chronicle.

When I am not photographing weddings or editorial assignments in the beautiful Bay Area, I am either working on my old home, fulfilling my duties as an Assistant Scoutmaster for Boy Scout Troop 14 or lounging on the couch with my fantastic wife, Sarah, and our dog, Warner.

Testimonials & Contact

We wanted someone who could tell the story of our wedding in a way that was not saccharine or contrived. Beck did this for us and so much more. He is a great collaborator and a joy to work with, and we are thrilled with the photos and the memories he captured.

- Ted and Linda

Besides the affordable pricing, what drew us to him is that he is a photojournalist by trade, not solely a wedding photographer -- my husband and I tend to look way better in candid shots than we do in forced poses, and we loved the idea of having someone around getting pictures of all the action. (Though, that said, our portraits are really nice as well.)

- Michaela and Alex

Beck was an amazing photographer to work with for our wedding! He was thoughtful, accommodating, fun and went beyond his photographer duties to make sure everything went as planned. His photographs were creative and unique, which is exactly what we wanted. I would highly recommend Beck as a photographer for any event!

- Ashley

Beck was the ideal photographer for our wedding. He is a gifted and professional photographer, who immediately understood our preference for photos that would capture the joy and fun of our informal celebration. We had a power outage during the ceremony, but that didn't phase Beck! His easy-going manner helped with the humor of the situation. We cherish his photos of our wedding, and we highly recommend Beck as a photographer for any occasion.
